TRADITION YEARBOOK

Today Is a Memory

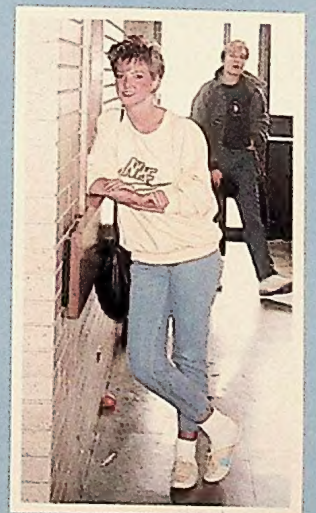

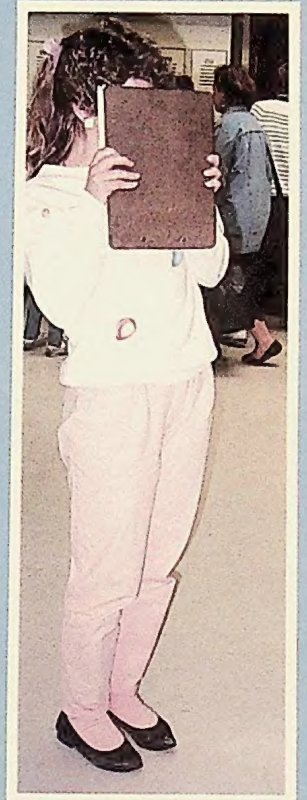

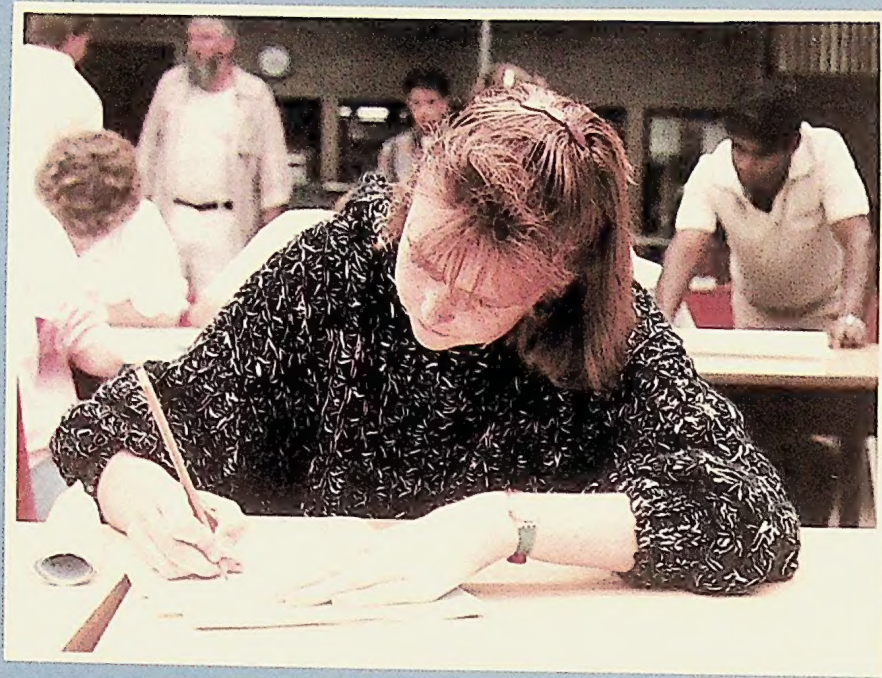

Never will you hold this time in your hands,
Never will you know this place,
Never again will your heart be held
In this moment's swift embrace.

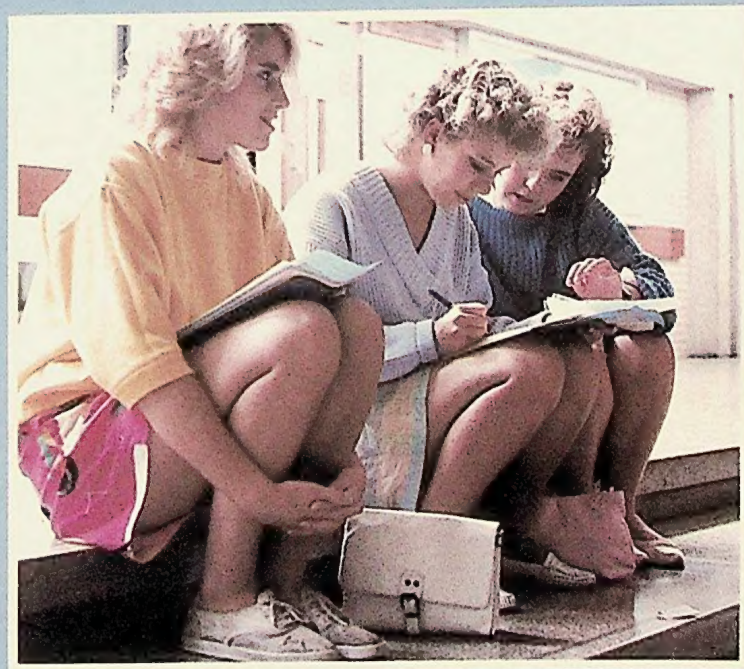

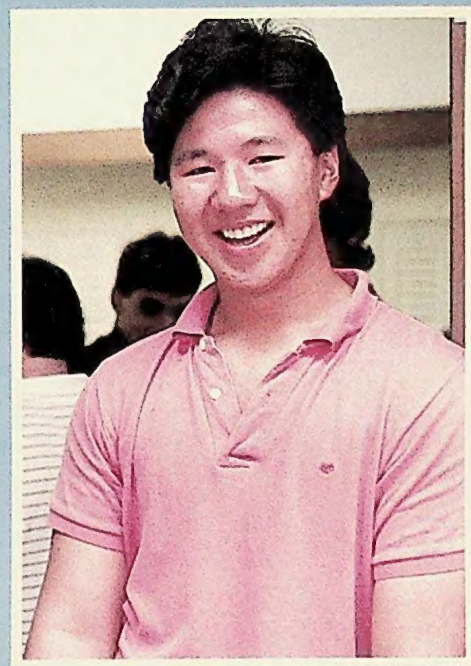

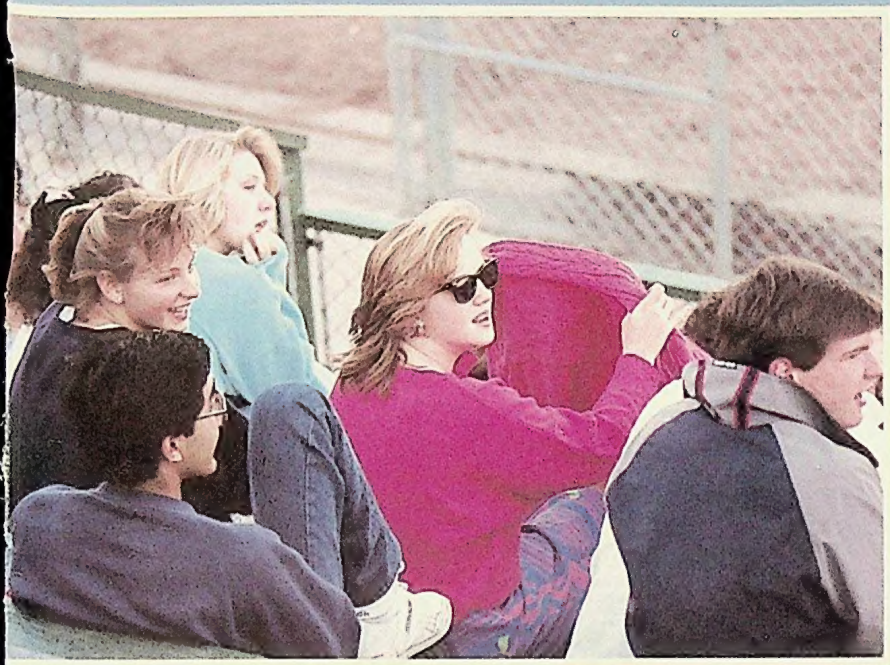

Never again will you hear youth's song
Played as sweetly as today,
Beckoning, luring, yet holding you back...
Making you want to stay.

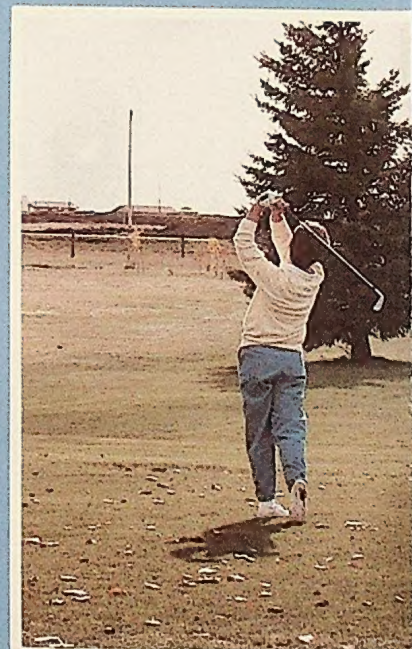

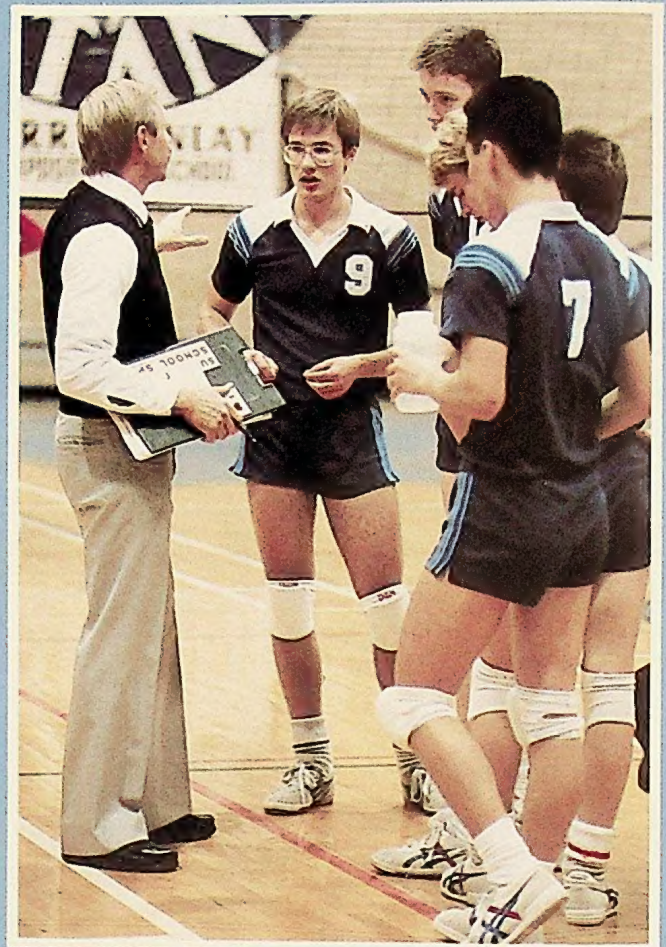

To each of you there's a separate thing
That when you recall, makes you smile.
But that pesky capricious goal you've set
Preys on your mind all the while.

Your thoughts are trained for the future
And your mind's on a higher goal,
But in your heart there will always be
This memory that stirs your soul.

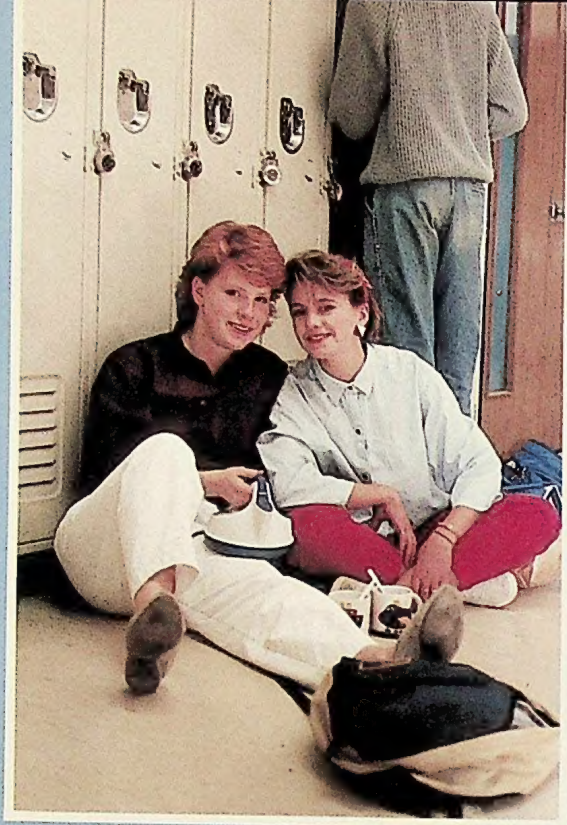

Pamela Kendall Barclay

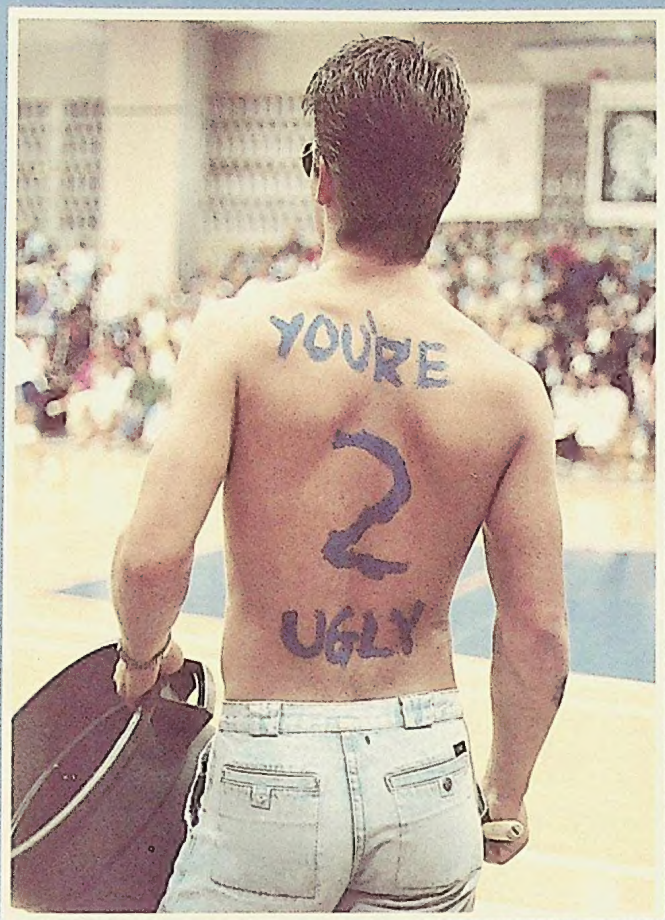

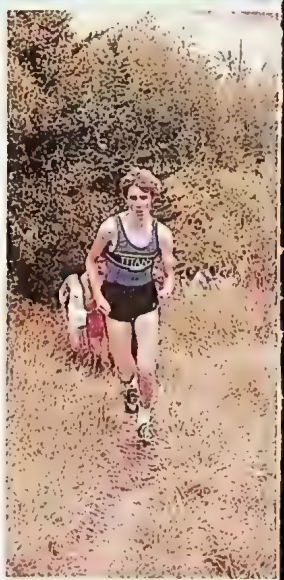

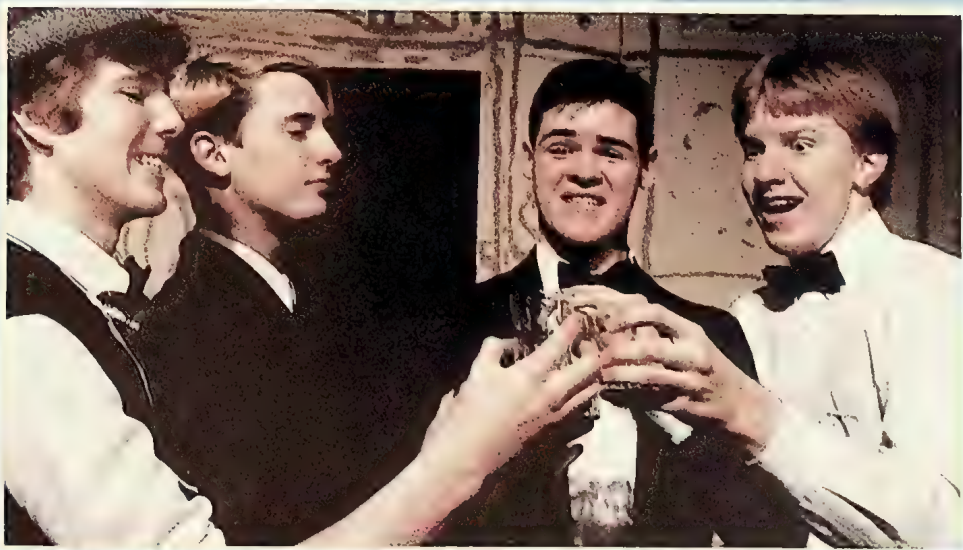

FACULTY

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I am extremely proud of the 1987 student body who have, once again, brought distinction to our school through their individual and collective efforts in scholastic, athletic, vocational and artistic endeavors. I look forward to growing a year older and, somewhat wiser, with the Grade 10 and 11 students, and I anticipate that they will provide Harry Ainlay with the same quality of leadership the 1987 graduating class has provided during the past year.

This year's graduating class has special significance for me since the majority of the graduates were first year high school students in my first year as principal of Harry Ainlay.

I have observed them develop from tentative Grade 10 students to confident Grade 12 young adults and I am justifiably pleased by the transition. I am also pleased that many of them have become my friends during the past 3 years and I look forward to hearing about their continued successes. They are truly a fine group of young people and I am fortunate to have had the opportunity to be associated with them. They are a credit to themselves, their families and their school and I will remember them with great fondness and inestimable pride.

IN MEMORIAM

Neil Primrose passed away on December 12, 1986, at the age of sixty-four years. Mr. Primrose began his career with Edmonton Public Schools in 1968 and was business manager at Harry Ainlay Composite prior to going on long term disability in May 1985. He is survived by his wife Agnes, and four sons Neil, Dave, Stewart, and Alan.

CLUBS

Dedicated to the 15/86 SU Executive -- for being themselves and the guys -- for always being my friends

For me, high school has provided the opportunity to learn and experience many things. But the most important gift high school gave me is the many people I have met and befriended. Without doubt, friendships are the most lasting aspects of high school.

In a school as large as Harry Ainlay, where most people cannot even recognize a fraction of the people in their own grade, I have tried to learn to consider even passing acquaintances as very distinct individuals. However, it is the people that are involved in our everyday lives that make the biggest impact on us. From friendships we learn to understand and respect each person's differing needs for privacy, companionship, compassion and support. And from our responsiveness, whether conscious or not, to the needs of our friends, we learn responsibility -- yes, 'responsibility', that thing our parents will be glad we've finally found. Friends also allow us to be ourselves: a little crazy, pretentious, glamorous, or moody at times, without feeling ashamed or scorned. Nevertheless, good friends keep us in our places.

High school, of course, also offers the opportunities to achieve one's own level of excellence in academic, athletic, vocational or service activities. The lessons we learn through participation in these activities are equally as valuable as the knowledge we obtain of friendships. I sincerely hope that high school has been a fulfilling experience that provides all of you with the knowledge to succeed and the friends with whom to share your accomplishments and happiness.

The Titanic has gone through some drastic personnel changes this year. In September Richard Sansregret took on the position of Acting Editor and later on in the year the staff switched to a Council of Editors.

The Council of Editors consists of five Editors sharing responsibilities and new ideas to produce a better and more creative newspaper.

They put out a paper about every month and a half to inform and entertain the students. They would like to thank Mr. Burgess and Mrs. Miller for their help and support.

COUNCIL

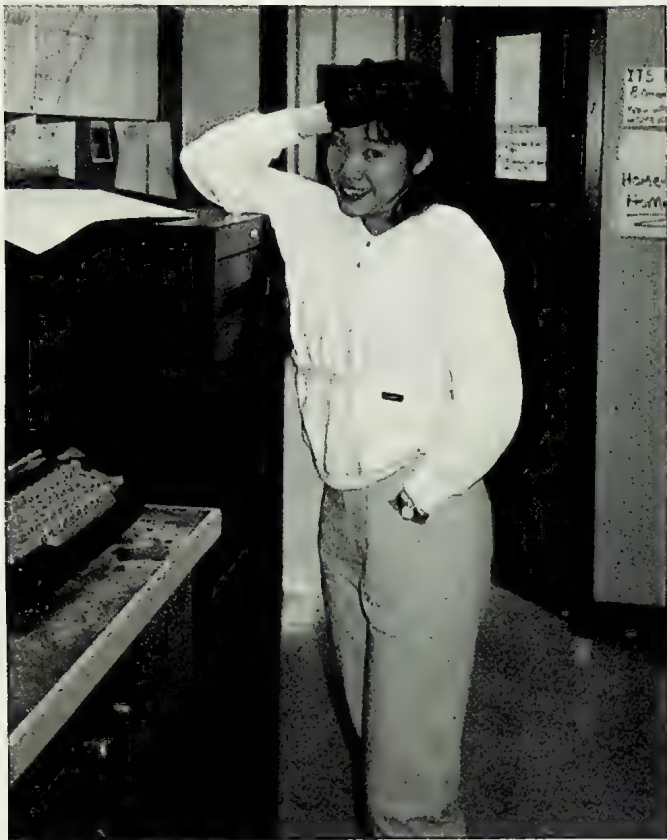

As I began to write this message for the yearbook, I was amazed at how quickly our senior year had come and gone. It seemed like grade twelve would never arrive and then when it did, it was gone in a flash. Suddenly, it's time to move on, to explore new horizons and set down the plans for the rest of our lives. Whatever your endeavors may be and wherever the future takes you, high school should be remembered with fond memories. I hope that all of you graduates will use your graduation as a final recollection of three great years at Harry Ainlay and cherish each moment.

I would like to thank an enthusiastic council and a dedicated and responsible executive whose hard work made my job easier. A special thanks to Mr. Hinz for all his support and to you, the graduating class, I wish all the best in the future.

Hey, isn't this neat, matching pictures!

So where should we start?

Well, I guess we should start by thanking all the dedicated people who worked on yearbook this year.

Like ... our I.C.P. Representative, Ken Heathfield, and our teacher advisor (who probably has ulcers because of us), Mr. Mathew.

We'd also like to thank Mrs. Sands and her typing students for all the effort they have put in. "THANKS"

To all the "Yearbook Staff" a special thanks for living with our frantic behavior the week before deadlines, and for all the time, talent, energy, and enthusiasm they have put into the 1986-87 edition of the TITAN TRADITION.

AWARDS BOARD

As the yearbook picture did not turn out, a professional artist was hired to draw a portrait of the board.

MEMBERS: Back Row (L to R): Mr. Holzer, Mrs. Tuffs, Dr. Lantz, Mrs. Newbold, Mrs. McGeachy, Mr. Hackman, Mr. Mathew.
 Middle Row: Kimberly Roberts, Jason Schraeful, Megan Charest, Christopher Veale, Nancy McNeilly, Karen Wilson, Sheryl Hancheroff, Jolan Storch.

The Awards Board takes on the task of publicizing and gathering all information for the yearly Awards Night Ceremony. All aspects of the night were taken care of by the members of the board who met frequently during the year. Special thanks to the teachers who put a great deal of time and effort into the board to make Awards Night a success.

DEBATE AND SPEECH

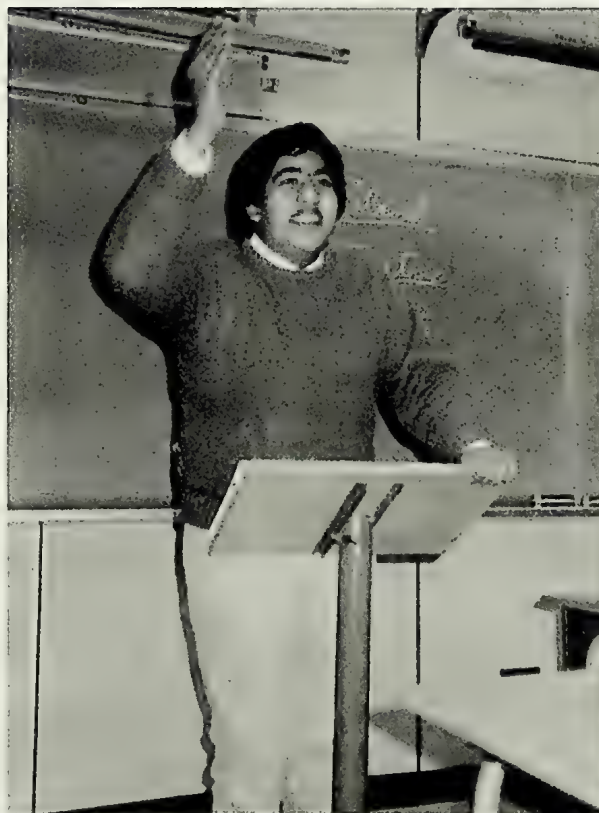

Back Row (L to R): Mike Hubert, Atif Ghani, Mr. Sands, Ashan Fernando.
Front Row: Lester Mah, Lynn McCullough.
Missing Debators: Alex Ross, Juliet Chang-Knapton, John Cheng, Richard Liu.

Every year the Harry Ainlay Debate and Speech Club gets better and better! This year there were about 15 members altogether and 8 people competed in 6 tournaments. The club travelled all over central Alberta from Westlock to Red Deer doing cross-examination and parliamentary style debate in high schools and at the U. of A. Two tournaments were even done impromptu, with only 15 minutes preparation time.

There were topics to please everyone, ranging from ice cream to free trade between the U.S. and Canada. Debating was not restricted to club members, either. In a debate open to the whole school, students defended positions on the issue, "Be it resolved that Canada is the 51st state of the United States of America."

On the speech side, although there were no competitions, demonstrations and practice of oral interpretation of literature, original oratory, solo acting, and impromptu styles took place.

Many thanks go to Mr. Sands, the club sponsor this year, who has helped us very much. The Debate and Speech Club is always open to new members - no experience necessary!

The Titan Volleyball Tournament (TVT) is an Ainlay tradition which started eight years ago. From a one-day event involving ten Alberta teams, the tournament has grown dramatically to become one of the most prestigious high school volleyball tournaments in Western Canada. TVT '86 hosted sixteen teams representing four provinces. After two days of round robin matches, the teams played in an exciting play-off to determine who is the "Best in the West".

The preparations for this tournament, which began in April, took months of hard work by many people. Since the 1986 TVT Executive was organized, we learned many valuable lessons on how to plan, create, lead, assist, prepare and shape this tournament. These are skills which all of us will use in the future.

I would like to convey a sincere thank-you to Mr. Olsen and all the executives, chairpersons and volunteers for their dedication and effort in making this event a special one.

On behalf of the TVT organizational committee, I also thank you for supporting the tournament and joining in the spirit.

Well, another successful Tri-Prov is over. This year's basketball tournament was especially exciting as Harry Ainlay won all three divisions: Sr. Boys, Sr. Girls, & Jr. Boys.

Four months were spent in preparation for this tournament, even though it only lasted 3 days. Our executives, assistants, as well as our staff sponsors, put in many hours of hard work to help make it a success. We all enjoyed ourselves in the end, especially when watching the final games.

A special thanks should also be made to all of those volunteers, who devoted their time and energy during the tournament itself.

Finally, we would like to thank all of you who came out to watch the Tri-Prov, as well as supported our very own Titans. We hope to see you next year at Tri-Prov '88!

CHEERLEADING

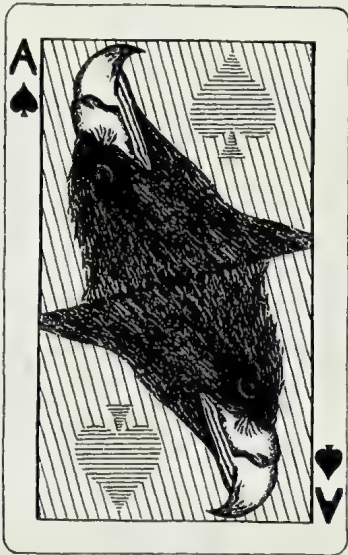

The 1986-1987 edition of the Harry Ainlay Squad was Comprised of twelve grade ten girls. Considering the fact that they were all first year cheerleaders, they accomplished a great deal and their hours of hard work and dedication paid off. This season the squad competed in two major competitions: the Redmen Competition held at Victoria Composite High School and of course, Harry Ainlay's own Tri-Province Competition. Although the Ainlay squad did not place in the top 3 in either of the competitions, they still did very well. The squad is working hard preparing for the 1987-1988 season.

We wish the squad success in future endeavors.

VIDEO YEARBOOK

This year's Video-Yearbook is the Brainchild of the elusive and brilliant Director/Producer Maus Hilstrom. This year's team embarked on some of the most spectacular technological endeavors ever seen at Ainlay.

Watch for the 1986-1987 edition of the Video-Yearbook in HI-FI STEREO sound.

(Special thanks to Trevor Holt who has been condemned to Calgary.)

MAUS HILSTROM

VIDEO-YEARBOOK MEMBERS: Maus Hilstrom, Brett Hardin, Hilary Moss, Trevor Holt, Colin Penman, Ross Champion, Joe Hamilton, Clinton Hodges, Kirsty MacGregor, Arthur Klima, Greg, and many others ...

A special thanks to all those hard working students who spent many hours faithfully supplying our D.J.F.R. (Daily Junk Food Requirements). Without them, Ainlayites would be starving without "nutrition" and never make it through those math doubles ...

THANKS!!!!

SCIENCE OLYMPICS

On May 9, 1987, 12 students represented Ainlay at the Third Annual Edmonton High Schools Science Olympics. After spending a month on building trusses and catapults, identifying funny chemicals, and studying the anatomies of all the organisms that they could dissect, the three teams placed very well in individual events. Special thanks go to Mr. Olsen, Mrs. Slevinsky (the staff advisors) and Mr. Hackman (one of the event organizers).

The participants were:

CAPTAIN CHAOS Tom Chmelicek, Paul Lu, Masood Makarechian, Phil Yoon. (Gold Medallists)

TITANIA George Seppard, Richard Liu, Naisan Garraway, Madhu Jawanda. (Bronze Medallists)

YOUNG LIFE

From fitting 29 people in a Ford Fiesta, to raiding the slopes at Rabbit Hill, WE HAD FUN!!! The fabulous "Winter Wipe-out '87" ski trip over teachers convention and the 18-team Floor Hockey Tournament in Vancouver gave us opportunity to meet new friends. And then there were the GREAT summer camps - 7 days at the INCREDIBLE Malibu Resort (in B.C.) - 7 days on a sailboat on the west coast and five day Rockies bike trip. All in all, it was a year of excitement, fun, and friends.

D. THAKKAR

THE AINLAYITES

You may not have heard of this club because it is not on the list of S.U. officially sponsored clubs. It is, however, the biggest one around since you are automatically a member of this exclusive club when you register at Ainlay. This club welcomes all Rotunda Dwellers, Corridor Clanners, Cafeteria Vegetators, and Exit Loafers. Next time when you walk around the school, be sure to look around, you may even attend a couple of meetings!

BAMFIELD MARINE TRIP

In February of this year 20 students went on a Biology field trip to the rainiest corner of Canada; Bamfield Marine Station, Bamfield B.C. in the temperate rain forest of Vancouver Island. Much to our pleasure it quit raining upon our arrival and the sun shone for the duration of our walks on the rocky shores, mud flats, ocean "cruises" and collecting trips via the flat bottom skiff. Other highlights included Port Albernie, Lady Rose, Victoria and the International Airport.

Some people said - "Europe for 2 weeks - what a wonderfully cultural experience!" However, most people said - "Europe for two weeks ... without parents ... PARTY!" As any of us who went could tell you, it was all that and more.

From Berlin on the East to Berlin on the West, we began to realize the great amounts of respect that one has for food. From the German-Polish border crossing, we learned how to show our passports efficiently, and what would be done without them. From Czechoslovakia we learned of the devastating effects that was had on the other countries, as compared to the beauty of this one, left untouched. To East Germany, where we saw the castle which Walt Disney later modelled Sleeping Beauty's castle after, we enjoyed ice cream by the gallon, and we shopped till we were broke. Finally at Munich, the 1-litre beer mugs and accompanying entertainment was greatly enjoyed.

We learned a lot, and we'd all like to thank Dr. Mitchner and Mrs. Tuffs for being great. All in all, a two week cultural party.

PERFORMING ARTS

CONCERT BAND

The Concert Band participated in all the Ainlay concerts throughout the year. These dedicated students also played at the NAIT graduation ceremony, Kiwanis, MusicFest Alberta, and ABA Festival. Congratulations on your excellent performances!

SYMPHONIC BAND

The Symphonic Band won a gold medal in every competition that they entered and was named "Most Outstanding Band" of the year. These competitions include: Kiwanis, MusicFest Alberta, MusicFest Canada, and ABA Festival.

Congratulations!

"B" STAGE BAND

The "B" Stage Band had a very interesting and rewarding year. Besides playing at the school's concerts, Kiwanis, and MusicFest Alberta, the band made a trip to "the jail" to play for the inmates. Best of luck next year!

Members of the choir have been practising hard the past year, preparing for concerts. Of course, life is not always peaches and cream, and the choir is not an exception to this theory. All of their concerts have gone smoothly with the exception of the Spring Concert which they will remember dearly. Their costumes ... welllll ... we don't mention their gorgeous attire. A special thanks to Mrs. Speers who supported the choir during bad times as well as good.

SPORTS

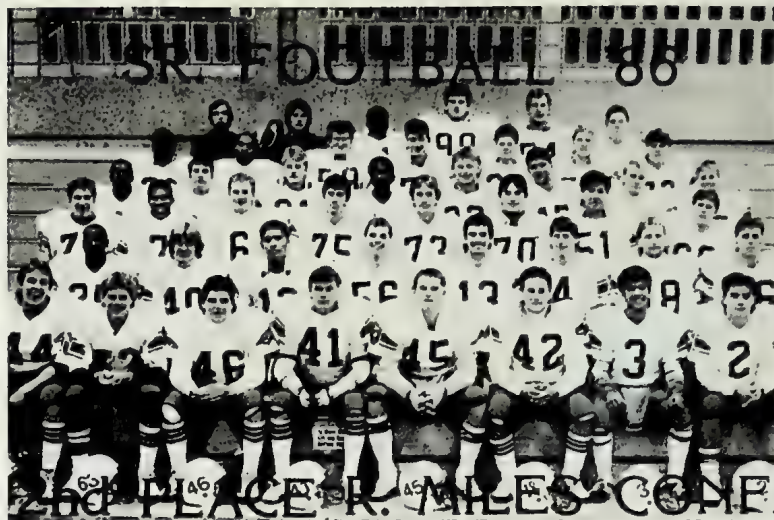

SENIOR TITAN FOOTBALL

The reigning 1984 (junior) and 1985 (senior) city champions entered the 1986 schedule being the 'team to beat', but as the competition found out, they were more than just that. The senior Titans went undefeated in the regular season, with wins like 54-14, 27-7, 55-1, 33-6, 16-8, and 55-0 ending up at the top of the conference with 253 points for, 37 points against, and a two game lead over second place. The team demonstrated extremely fine tuned football, with every member playing to their fullest capability. Outstanding players who were a definite asset to the team were: Cam Christiansen, Jim Balkan, Jerry Holik, Bruce Iggulton, Tom Jaczay, Cory Letourneau, Gary Linke, Harvey Riehl, Peter Rowe, Neil Sande, Tony Scheffer, Selwyn Taylor, and John Wakulich.

In the semi-final game, the Titans defeated M.E. LaZerte 22-21, earning a second consecutive berth to the conference championships in two years, where they were plagued with injuries, bad breaks, and unfavourable weather. As a result, the Titans lost the big one, 30-13, to her archrivals, Salisbury.

All in all, it was an extremely successful year. Such post-secondary institutions such as the University of Alberta, University of British Columbia, University of North Dakota, University of South Dakota, Oregon State University, Brigham Young University, Boston College, and Montana State University have all shown interest in some of the players. This is a strong indication of an outstanding job by the coaching staff: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Holzer, Mr. McDermid, Mr. Paulitsch, Mr. Rippel and Mr. Tietzen.

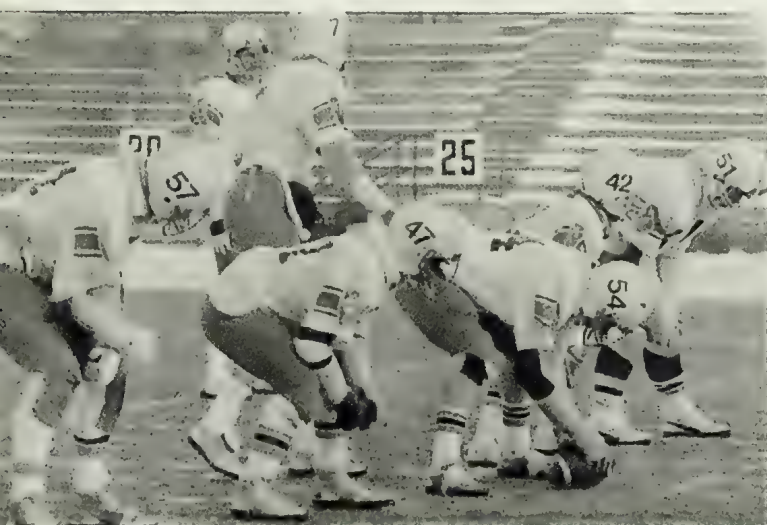

Way to go Titans for a great year! Special congratulations to the graduates and veterans who finished their high school football years at 28-1-1.

The junior Titan football team kept up the Ainlay tradition by coasting through their third consecutive undefeated season. Consequently, they kept their reign as the junior city champions for the third year in a row, a feat unprecedented in Edmonton high school football. Their success was largely due to Jerome McNeil, running back, who played havoc on the opposing teams' defense, scoring several touchdowns and first downs. As a result, he was named as the league's most valuable player. The coaching staff also contributed to the team's large success. They were: Bob Erichsen, David Legg, Jim Koshman, Bill Ross, and Jamie Peers. Bob Erichsen was chosen as novice coach of the year for the province of Alberta.

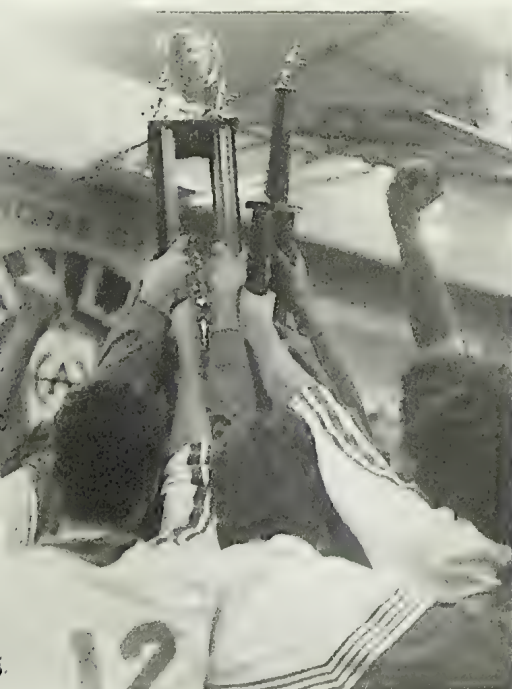

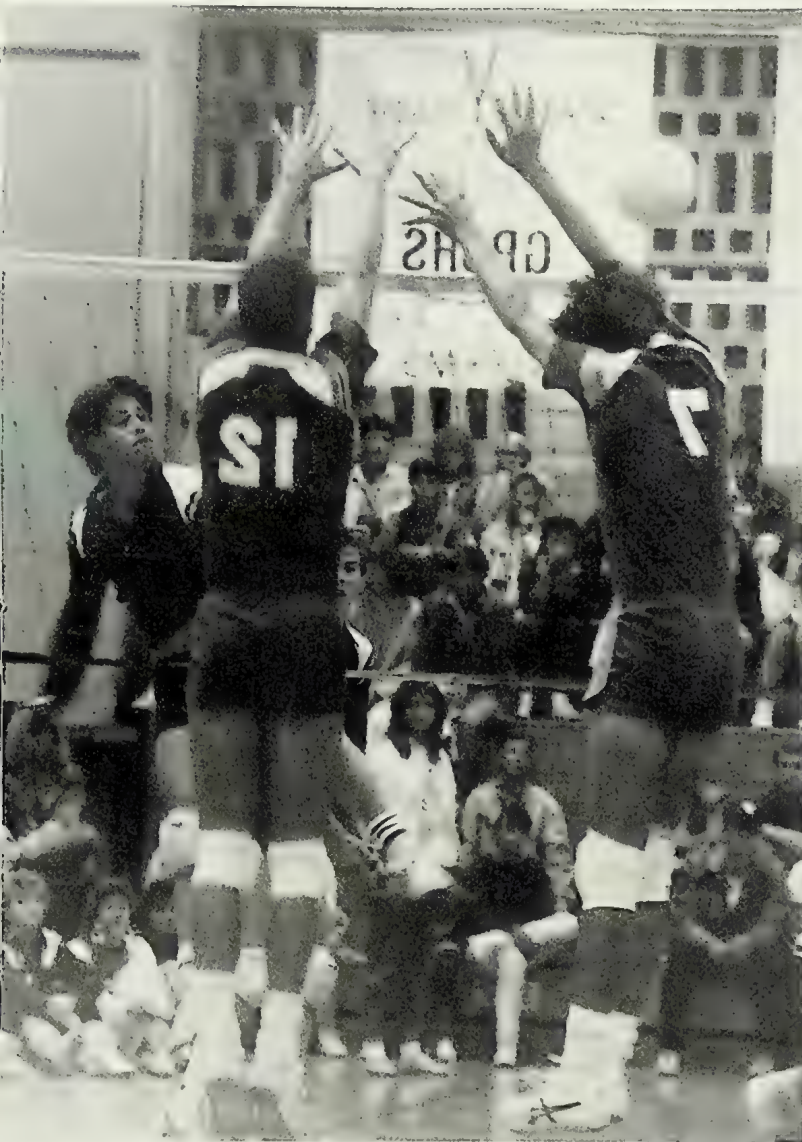

TITAN VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

The opening ceremonies of the Eighth Annual Titan Volleyball Tournament was a spectacular show of dazzling light, synchronized music and an exciting fast-paced performance by Ainlay's gymnastics team. It was remarked as "the best opening ceremonies ever", and it was certainly an indication of a thrilling and competitive tournament ahead. Sure enough, Ainlay saw its best volleyball action ever, as sixteen girls' and boys' teams from British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba battled each other for the prestigious TVT Crown. All the games were highly competitive, with both teams making respective play-off berths. The girls lost a close one in the semi-final but defeated Calgary's Sir Winston Churchill in the bronze medal match. The boys' team got through to the championship game where they faced Ainlay's southern competition -- J. Percy Page. The gym was packed tight as Ainlayites and Percy Pagers swarmed in to cheer their respective teams. That night, September 27, Edmonton witnessed one of the most exciting, loudest, and well played volleyball championships ever as the Ainlay boys repelled a late comeback in the final match to finally win two games to one. After this, who could imagine TVT to be better?

In short, an excellent job by the TVT executive, who were Leanne Fischbuch, Travis Lamb, Anita Lehman, Elaine Mah, Thara Pillai, Lola Sim, and Janet Thompson.

GOLF

Ainlay's golf team had a very good year. The girls' team, comprised of Shauna Emerson, Kim Treece, Leanne Shobe, Laura Robinson, and Kara Banasch took the city trophy as well as the provincial championship. Trevor Koksak, Carson Akroyd, Jeff William, and Richard Howaith made up the boys' team and they won the city championship as well. Carson Akroyd had the best score at the city championships. The coaches were Mr. Lindbergh and Mr. Wynn.

The senior boys had a very strong and extremely successful season this year - along with a lot of fun! Starting off the season with no major problems they coasted through Ainlay's Titan Volleyball Tournament with the greatest ease in pulling off a first place. They then flew to Vancouver, Expo, and U.B.C.'s Thunderbird Tournament where they played against British Columbia's finest teams and placed third. Next was the boys attainment of gold medals in the Grande Prairie Pow Wow Tournament, and a second place in Spruce Grove. When the boys met Salisbury at the City Finals, second place was no place for them! Pulling off a challenging game they walked away with the Championship trophy for the cities and made a repeat performance in the 4A Provincial Championships the next week, which were held in Calgary. Strong congratulations are due for the strength and talent of the Senior Boys' team, and in the way of coach Gane Olsen and assistant coach Mark Ramsankar for their commitment and dedication to the team.

The senior girls had a very surprising and successful season this year. The year started off with a third place in the infamous Titan Volleyball Tournament, leaving the girls with an optimistic outlook for the coming season. Through a short period of lost confidence, the girls were showing unpredicted results, lost games, and unnecessarily close scores. The girls also played in tournaments at Vancouver's Sutherland High School, Grande Prairie, and Spruce Grove. Finally the girls began to clean up their act, making it into the Cities which were this year played as a tournament of the best 8 teams. In the semi-finals of the tournament the girls were down one game and were losing by 7-0 in the second of a three game match. The Titans pulled through to win the semi-final, only to be faced by the McNally Tigers whom they had lost to three times in the season. Disputed as their best game of the season, the girls beat the Tigers in two straight games and carried away the City Championship. The girls placed fourth in the Provincial Tournament held in Calgary the next week. Congratulations to the senior girls and their coaches for a job well done.

The junior boys began this year with a very exciting season which was full of power and strength. Beginning with a second place in the Titan Classic, their own tournament, the season looked hopeful and promising. They attended many other tournaments throughout the season including those at Jasper Place and Bev Facey where the boys were semi-finalists. The boys most exciting tournament of the year was the Strathmore Senior tournament in which the boys played two very close games of 17-15, 16-14, and lost to Brooks Senior High who later won the entire 3A Provincials. Through strong results in league play the junior boys made it into the City Finals, and played an exceptional game, emerging from their season as the City Champs. Mention should be made to the fantastic coaching job this year, by Larry Lerbeckmo and his assistant coach Rob Sorensen. All in all the boys have had a great year which included a good deal of talent.

The junior girls started off very successfully this year with a strong and talented team. Breaking through the barriers of unfamiliar players, coaches, heights, and rules the girls pulled together to place second in their own tournament, the Titan Classic. The girls' confidence seemed to be boosted after playing together through practice and tournament. This showed greatly in their play at the Bev Facey tournament where they were gold medalists. Because of the level of the girls' play they were entered in the Strathmore Senior Tournament where they played against teams with two years experience over their own and still placed fourth. The city finals were frustrating and upsetting. The juniors were favored city wide and the final looked hopeful. Through a challenging yet unfortunate semi-final, their play gave them a third place to J.P. All in all the girls should be congratulated for their season!

WRESTLING

The Harry Ainlay Wrestling Club 1986-87 was one of the strongest ever, with over 20 members. They were coached by Mr. Dave Legg and Phil Spate. The team had various tournaments throughout the year, mostly held at Salisbury High School, who were the team's arch-rivals. The Titan wrestlers performed very well, albeit injuries and sickness. The novice wrestlers improved a lot as the year went by, and did a good showing at city finals where the Titans placed third over all.

The team members are: David Kool, Brent Harrold, Jon Hokanson, Rod Lewis, Phil Spate, Dean Laverick, Brian Corbett, Sean Dingley, Dean Channy, Gary Goetch, Brad Lewis, Billy Crooks, Kevin Krammers, Kirk Milkie, Scott Dickinson, Dave Legg, Chris Hedstrone, Jeff Dobrescu, Pascal (Bug) Bonnet, D.J. McNeil, Bobby Sharma, J.R. White, Rick Wainwright. Managers: Rhonda Waters, Vickie McNeil, and Sabrina Sperber.

CURLING

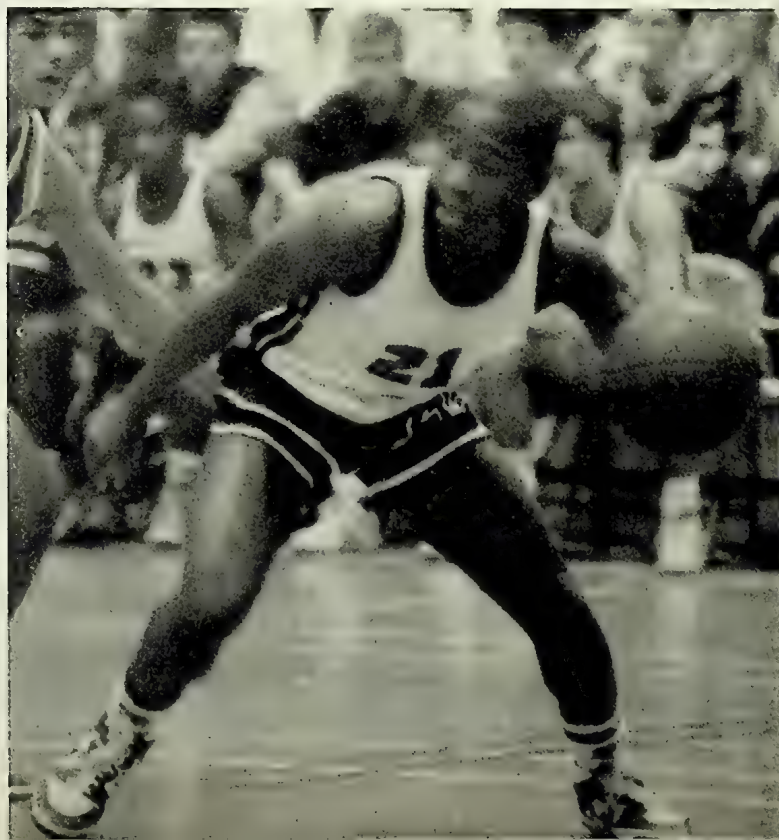

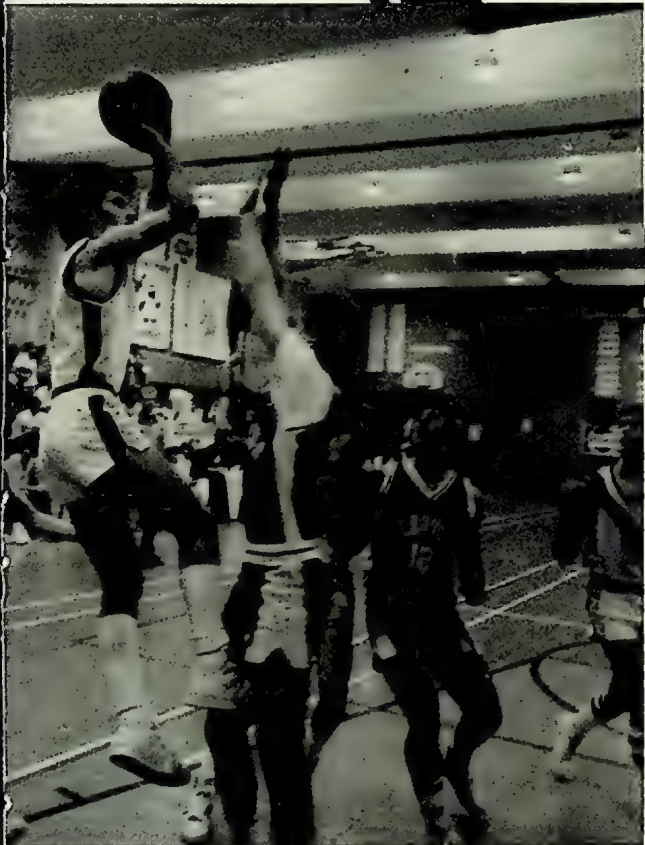

Ainlay's Curling team was quite successful in the 1986-1987 curling season, competing weekly at the Sport-Ex which started in mid-October and lasted until the playdowns in mid-February. The team advanced as far as the city finals, where they lost to Queen Elizabeth.

TRI-PROV 87

Tri-Province 87 competitors came from far and wide - from Prince George to Saskatoon, and they came ready to play ball in one of western Canada's premier high school basketball tournaments. The action was intense in every game, with winners and losers usually separated by only a point or two. The first round was perhaps the most exciting, for each team knew it was crucial to win, each being matched by an equally as formidable a team. The first round was really hot and Ainlay saw all their entrants (senior boys, senior girls, junior boys) all advance with game wins. The senior boys played a very tough game against the Parkland Raiders, but overpowered to win 71-70 in the dying seconds. All three teams eventually made it to their respective category championships. The senior boys met Caledonia in an extremely tight game. The fan support rivaled that of TVT '86 as everyone jam packed the gymnasium, anticipating a third consecutive championship trophy. The boys prevailed, winning by one point from a shot by Paul Yusypchuk in the final seconds of the game, after it had been 85-86 with a hair pulling, edge-of-the-seat 19 seconds to go. In Ainlay's other two matches, the senior girls also went through a very tough contest against Prince George to win by one point and their first Tri-Prov win since 1982. The juniors kept up the tradition by defeating Duchess Park winning their second straight Tri-Prov. This was the first time in Tri-Prov history that Ainlay has won the triple crown.

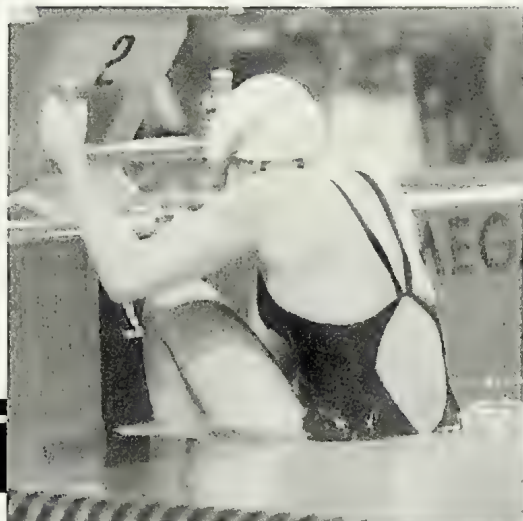

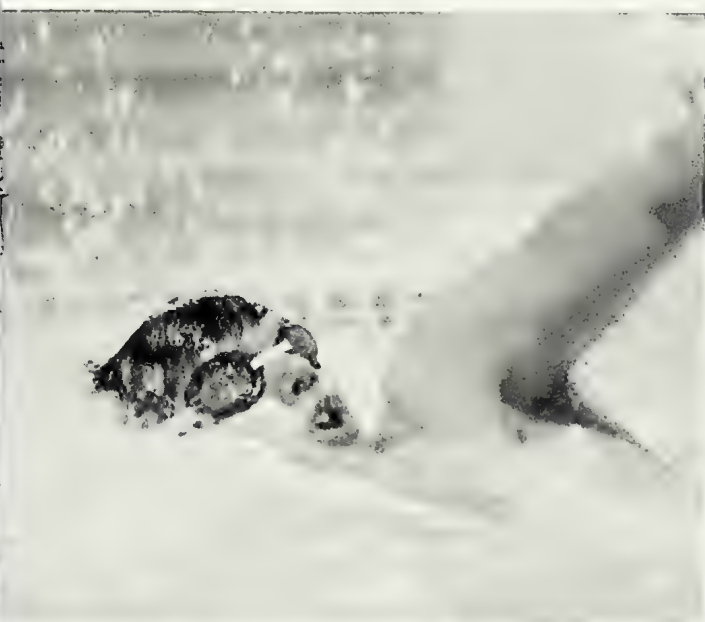

SWIMMING

The Harry Ainlay Swim Team ended their season in March with a disappointing second place finish to a larger Scona team. The team was faithfully coached by Uncle Bob Holzer and Graeme Burns, with the assistance of the rookies' coach, Mrs. Therrian, and pool fees manager Mrs. McGeachy. After five months of morning workouts, the team learned to enjoy swimming while asleep, despite the drastic lowering of the pool temperature in the late season and the high pressure showers.

WOMEN'S TEAM: Jennifer Andrews, Laurie Ashton, Cara Beingessner, Kim Biollo, Susan Burns, Trish Davis, Evie Diduch, Shannon Grabia, Jinny Hackbarth, Leah Handford, Rebecca Highett, Hilary Jackson, Kim Karran, Janet King, Annette Manning, Brooke Marshall, Leigh Anne Martinson, Karlene Martinson, Janet Mitchelson, Marla Qinney, Debbie Rufenack, Margo Schulte, Andrea Simmonds, Jackie Smith, Jill Stout, Julie Vanzwoll, Wendy Wong.

GYMNASTICS

The 1987 Titan Gymnastics team enjoyed a very fruitful year. With a total of forty-four members on the squad they did very well at all their competitions, ultimately winning the city championships, and doing very well at the provincial championships - the junior girls', and open girls', elite girls', all around girls', novice boys', junior boys', senior boys', all around boys', and mixed all around each gained provincial championship status. Many Titan gymnasts claimed various individual provincial gold medals: Jennifer Ingham - novice girls' floor exercise; Jamie Ashton - junior girls' balance beam; Tara Chalmers - senior girls' uneven bars; Lianne Yee - open girls' uneven bars, open girls' vault, open girls' all around; Victor Lin - novice boys' high bar, novice boys' all around; Mark Workun - novice boys' vault; Mitch Yaremko - novice boys' pommel; Darryl Schallig - junior boys' pommel, junior boys' rings, junior boys' high bar, junior boys' all around; Kelly Mock - senior boys' all around. The coaching staff consisted of Hope Knudson, Don Anweiller, and Andrew Hobernile.

The junior rugby team coached by Dave Legg and Bob Erichsen had a very strong year. Brute determination and will power brought the team into the playoffs, where they were the underdogs up against traditionally better teams. However they overpowered to win the city championship in a stunning upset.

SENIOR RUGBY

Ainlay's senior rugby team kept the drive alive by also winning the city championship in their respective division. The team was coached by Dave Legg and Bob Erichsen.

TITAN TRACK & FIELD

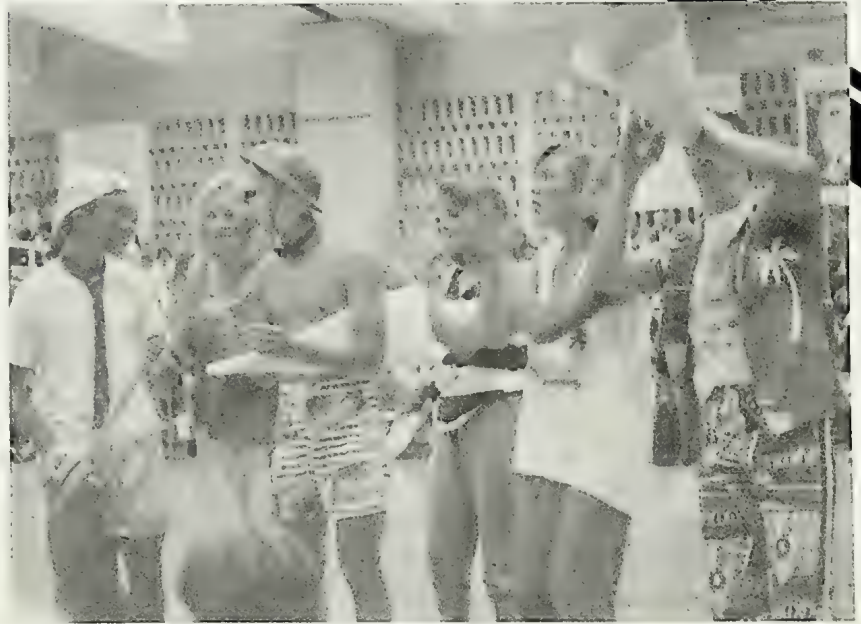

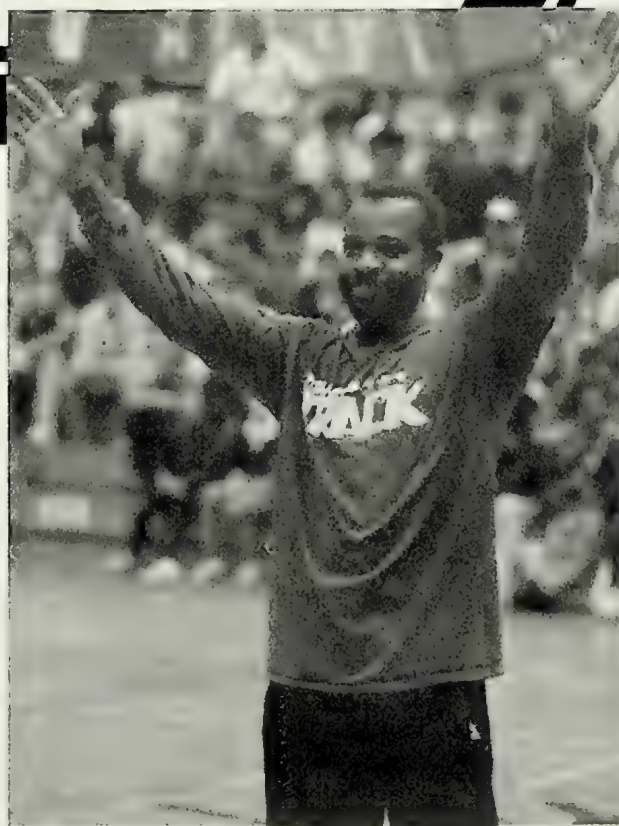

Ainlay's track team had another fine year, winning numerous gold medals at both cities and provincials, shattering many records in both categories, and playing havoc on the 'Scona Tradition'. Some of the outstanding athletes who captured provincial gold medals were: Curtis Bouffong - tripe jump, Ray Hawkins - triple jump, Selwyn Taylor - 100m, 200m, long jump (prov record), Colleen Whitmore - high jump. The Ainlay Senior boys' and Intermediate boys' relay teams each represented Edmonton in their respective categories at the provincial track meet, and each took the gold, with the senior boys (Selwyn Taylor, Juno Brady, Fitz Gordon and Garcia Brightley) making a new provincial record.

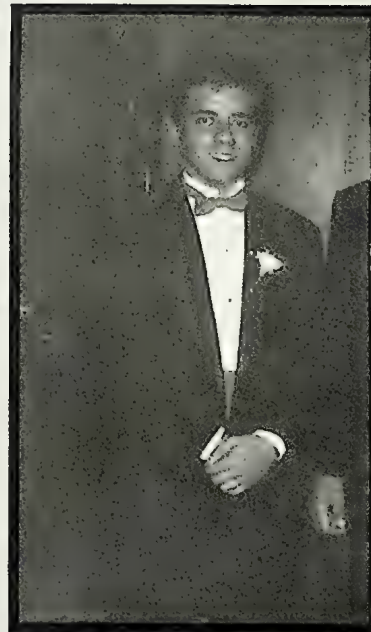

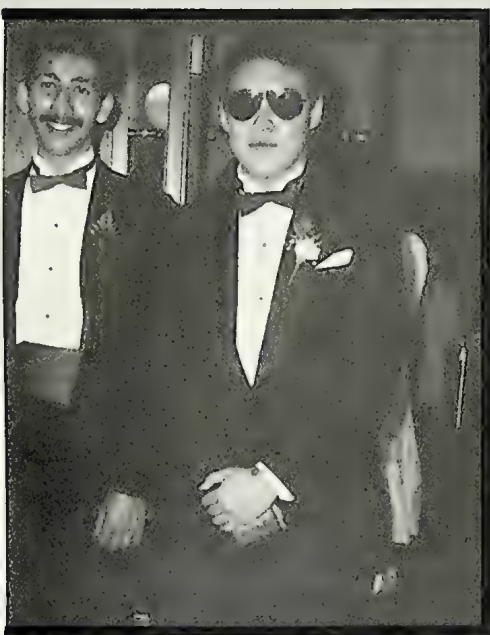

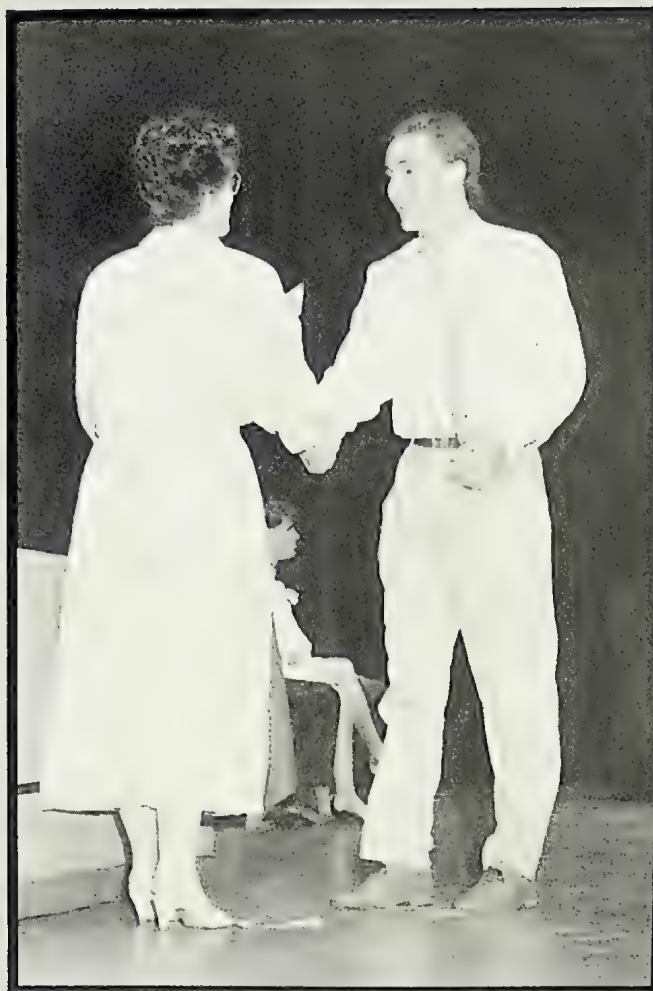

THE CHEERING SECTION!!!

Ainlay's non-athletes saw as much action in the bleachers as did the players on the courts and playing fields. Especially at the football games, TVT, the volleyball city championships, Tri-Province, and basketball city championships, Ainlayites came to chant that famous Ain-lay chorus and cheer our Titans to keep the Titan tradition of 'numero uno' alive.

GRADUANDS

PRIME MINISTER · PREMIER MINISTRE

On behalf of the Government of Canada, I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings and sincere best wishes to all 1987 graduating students.

Many years ago, John Morley, an English statesman, wrote that, "the mind is not a vessel to be filled; it is a hearth to be lighted." A person may be a great scientist, artist, or entrepreneur and yet not be truly educated. Education is something that concerns the understanding heart, the spirit, and the human soul.

We live in a world dominated by one factor: change. It is the one constant that will set our pace, create our problems, accommodate our talents and define our frontiers. But change also brings with it new hopes and new opportunities.

Your studies and the variety of experiences you have gained challenge each of you to excel. The lessons learned prepare you for the tremendous responsibilities of adulthood and serve as a solid foundation for future decisions.

In Canada, we have asked our young people to accept increasingly important roles, for you are the harbingers of our future and your dreams will one day define our nationhood. I am confident you will respond to the challenges presented to you and I am delighted to wish you every success in your future endeavours.

VALEDICTORIAN'S SPEECH

My speech will be like the latest Paris fashion: long enough to cover the subject and short enough to be interesting.

Graduation is a time marked by teachers attempting to pry that last effort from their students. The students in turn are desperately trying to avoid school work and begin celebrating. As an understanding between student and teachers is reached, a pleasant atmosphere in the school is created. As a result, the exodus of the graduating class becomes a memorable occasion.

There is a strong temptation to put behind us these last three years of unmitigated toil and struggle. However, we should keep in mind what our education here at Ainlay has provided us. From our teachers and books, we have learned the obvious academic skills such as rote memory, logical thinking, creative insight, and problem solving. Furthermore, we have gained an invaluable education through interaction with one another. By overcoming the complex problems and heartfelt struggles we have with our peers, we have improved our understanding of the world around us. We have begun nurturing the beliefs, values, and opinions which will form a pathway for the rest of our lives. The purpose of education, according to Robert M. Hutchins "... is to unsettle (the students') minds, widen their horizons, inflame their intellects, teach them to think straight, if possible." By successfully challenging our environment, we have increased our self-confidence and gained a feeling of accomplishment.

We graduates now enter an unsettled, complex world. A world characterized by international disputes, economic misfortune, limited employment, poverty, and the ever-present threat of nuclear war. However, we need not be overwhelmed by the feelings of inferiority and hopelessness. We have acquired self-confidence. And, we can apply the same skills used in tackling the problems within this same skills used in tackling the problems within this school, to attack those personal challenges and societal problems without. The resulting increase in experience from making mistakes and the wisdom gained in learning from them will ensure victory. We must not be counted with the many passive observers who lack the vision, determination, and desire to succeed. Let us have the courage and belief in ourselves to undertake the lofty goals of personal success and advancement of society. An American President once said, "Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs, even though checkered by failure, than to take rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy much nor suffer much, because they live in the twilight that knows not victory nor defeat." Ironically, it is the uncertainties and struggles in life that provide its joys and excitements. So, let us be prepared for the worst, but hope and work diligently for the best. Previous generations have paved for us a road filled with opportunity. This road exemplifies the morality, uprightness, and excellence of our forefathers. It is incumbent upon us to maintain it as a safe and suitable one for those who will come after. The road has been provided - its upkeep and direction depends entirely on us.

For the graduating class of 1987, I leave the following words of Berton Braley:

"The best verse hasn't been rhymed yet,
The best house hasn't been planned,
The highest peak hasn't been climbed yet,
The mightiest rivers aren't spanned;
Don't worry and fret, faint-hearted,
The chances have just begun
For the best jobs haven't been started,
The best work hasn't been done."

Thank-you

Tune from "JEFFERSONS"

We're movin' on up
To Senior High
To all them fine women in the sky.

We're movin' on up
To Senior High
We finally got a piece of the pie.

G: Well, here we are, 1987, and THIS IS YOUR LIFE.

A&R: HIGH SCHOOL.

G: Three years of our lives. Three years of your lives.

A: High School, the culminations of our aspirations, maturation, and frustration.

R: What about education?

G: Yah, that's right, we did learn.

A: Lots of things, but not all scholastic.

R: Right. I went to high school, not to pick up girls but to pick up women, and I don't mean teachers.

G: We changed to pick up women.

A: You stopped wearing floods.

G: You started showering.

R: You stopped eating egg and onion sandwiches for lunch.

G: We were all insecure.

A: To combat our inherent adolescent male insecurity, we formed social groups, cliques.

R: But in grade 10, nobody was a member, but everything we did had a purpose as we strove towards the ultimate goal summed up in every member of the opposite sex.

Remember grade 10 girls?

ALL: OOOH!

A: Remember grade 12 girls?

ALL: AHHH!

G: Remember the dances?

R: No...

A: Too much cheap wine?

G: But the atmosphere ... Hot, sweaty bodies, writhing in the dark, steamy air.

R: Noses stimulated by the smell of passion ... cheap wine, spearmint gum, and vomit.

A: Saturday Night Fever.

G: Yah, right. In grade 10, we didn't have time to dance. We were too busy holding up the wall.

WALL POSE

A: See that girl over there?

R: Yah!

A: She wants me.

R: I can tell.

A: Here she comes.

Here she comes.

Here she comes.

There she goes. (All bow heads.)

G: But an even greater blow to our masculinity was our new image, thanks to W-5.

A: Another new image was that of Coke.

R: New Coke, tastes awful, but hey, it looks good.

G: But seriously now, admit it, we were small insignificant and scared of vaseline.

A: You don't mean froshing.

R&G: Right!

R: Or to Harry Ainlay's very own Colonel Sanders, Mr. Stolee.

IMPRESSION

Hazing will not be tolerated.

Th school is not a zoo...

G: Speaking of delinquencies, the most monumental moment in all of grade 10, the first unexplained absence, truency.

A: Is it decided ... are we going to ... skip?

R: Ya, ya, YAH!

ALL: 1,2,3 SKIP!!

G: From grade 10 to grade 11.

A: We were smart, we learned to explain our absences.

R: Ya, that's it. I was in the library/Libya - I'm a Secret Agent - I had to phone mom / Mohmar - Yah, that's the ticket.

G: Miami Vice taught us how to dress.

A: We now wore pinks.

R: Yellows.

G: And every other colour in the pastel rainbow.

A: No longer were we scum.

R: Man, we was it!

G: In grade 11, girls took on a whole new perspective.

R: Ya man ... They wanted us.

G: Or so we thought.

A: Yo woman ... Ya know you're very beautiful. "I know". Ya well, I was just reminding you!

R: Ya man, he was just reminding you.

G: Alright man, you got her. (Finger Whip)

G: And now we're in grade 12. The final year ... For most of us.

R: Grade 12 women.

ALL: OOOH!

A: Grade 10 women.

ALL: AHH...

R: I mean they came to us.

A: They had that certain quality the rest of the women lacked.

G: DESPERATION.

A: This year a new style was formed.

R: Look at my new 501's.

G: Where did you get the holes?

R: I was thrashing on my board last night and I spilled.

A&G: Right!

G: By now, everyone had found their own little corner of the hallway, rotunda, cafeteria, or the drama room.

A: But don't forget the SU room.

R: Who could forget, happy hour at the SU room.

G: Weren't there 15 people in the room, but only 4 had a drink? RIGHT ... Like I said, everyone had their own group.

A: The largest group of all, the preps.

R: Polo

G: Gooseloonies

A: Westbrook Drive

R: No socks

G: Now, now, don't go trying to cover up your penny loafers. You know who you are, they know who you are ... we know who you are. How could we miss you?

A: Like a new Ralph Lauren cologne?

R: Yes, very subtle, do you bathe in bit?

A: Oh Biff ... here come Muff. Score me some gel.

G: Or how about lung cancer lane?

R: Oh you mean exit 11? Home of the middle finger greeting.

A: But they're starting to take an active part in school sponsored activities. Want to join the motorcycle club?

G: Tucked away in the darkest corner of Ainlay, the Drama Cave. All dressed in black, because something's wrong with the world we live in, and they can change it!

R: Yes, Harry Ainlay's intelligentsia.

A: Want to see what I learned today.

HISTORIANS

(Sword fight - Ron stabbed)

R: Ooh. Ahh!

A: Are you okay?

R: I was just acting!

A: So was I!

R: Because I am an actor!

A: So am I!

G: But let us not forget the athletically inclined, the jocks.

R: Ever notice the way they walk.

FLEX

G: And their fearless leader, Mr. Anderson.

A: Basketball is a contact sport. Football is a collision sport. And remember boys, practise doesn't make perfect, perfect practice makes perfect.

R: And to make themselves perfect, they're always pumping in the gym. You know, like this. (Shoulder Press Action)

A&G: Right!

G: Then there's the pride of Harry Ainlay, the International Baccalaureate students, the nerds.

R: Mr. Olsen, is this for marks?

A: Their BYOB parties - bring your own books. All nighters with their favourite ... textbook.

G: They're easy to pick out at report card time.

REPORT CARD DANCE

I got my report card.

I got my distinction.

I'm gonna be a doctor.

A: What about the brothers?

R: I ain't going to say anything.

G: I ain't gonna cut the brothers man.

A: Don't look at me.

G: Of course, then there's the wanna bees.

R: I wanna be a prep.

A: I wanna be a head.

G: I wish I was in IB.

R: I want to be an actor.

A: But we haven't mentioned our group.

G: We don't really have one, do we?

R: I guess you could call us outsiders.

A: But we're trying to be studs...Why do you think we're class historians.

G: Each group in isolation was the subject of controversy, criticism, and ridicule, some deserving it and some not.

R: But together we make up Harry Ainlay's class of '87.

A: SU and their groupies ran the school.

G: ... or so they thought.

R: Preps ... we'll get back to them.

A: The Heads were always there to fix our cars, whether they needed it or not.

G: Besides showing us all the shades of black, the drama zoids annually produce a fine one-act play festival.

R&A: We laughed ... We cried ... We saw turtles in the sky.

R: Even though they walk funny, the jocks brought us one championship season after another.

A: Football, basketball, volleyball, gymnastics.

G: and don't forget golf,

R: all won team championships.

A: And back to the preps.

G: If we didn't have them, we'd be another Vic Comp.

A: They added a designer look to Ainlay.

R: Let me tell you darlings, you look marvellous.

G: If we were to condense our three years (... or four) into a single one hour episode, it would not be unlike...

The Love Boat, soon will be making another run.

A: But that was only true for some of us.

Now love, won't hurt anymore.

With a friendly smile ...

R: Shut up! Lately, all of Ainlay's been the brunt of public ridicule and criticism.

A: Our reputation was first tarnished by W-5.

G: And now Saturday Night has named our school more racist than any other.

R: But we all know what that was.

SHOVEL

A: Which reminds me ... Everyone remembers the visit by his lordship, his majesty, the master himself, Brian Mulroney.

G: And Mila...

R: The real reason for the articles and visits is our prominence as one of the best high schools in North America.

A: Scholastically, athletically, vocationally, and in the Fine Arts, Harry Ainlay ranks among the elite.

G: We can compete with any other high school in any event and make a name for ourselves.

R: We've always been on top, and in the public eye.

A: And the reason for this, above all else, is the students, you and me.

G: Stereotypes aside, Harry Ainlay's class of '87 is one of the finest to graduate from any school.

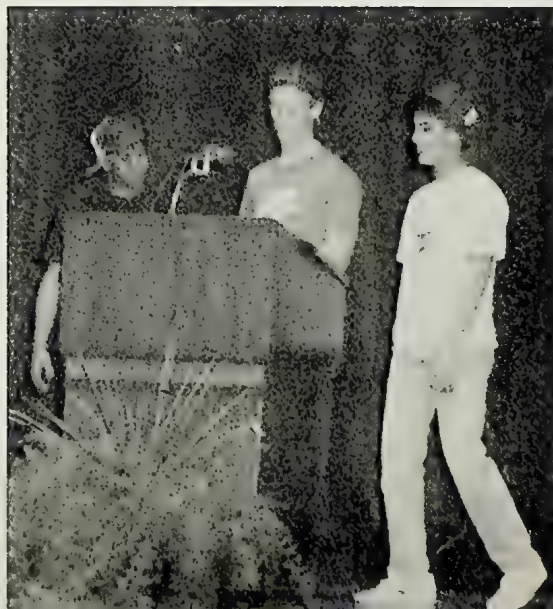

R: And in the future we, Harry Ainlay's class of '87, will continue to be the cream of the crop.

A: So be a drama student, change the world.

Making your way in the world today

Takes everything you got.

Sergeant Barnes, PLATOON

YOUNG, James

"It all looks fine, when you look with the naked eye, But it don't really happen that way at all."
Peter Townshend

YOUNG, Maria

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge."
Proverbs 1:7

Success is a ladder that cannot be climbed with your hands in your pockets.

ZALIK, Anna

"You've been reading some old letters
You smile and think how much you've changed
All the money in the world -
couldn't buy back those days. "
The The

"My God, what have we done?"
Copilot of the Enola Gay

ZETTER, Bryan

"In the days of my youth I was told what
It's like to be a man.
Now I've reached that age I try to do the Best I can
Good times, bad times, I know
I've had my share."

Led Zeppelin

ZIEGLER, Michelle

These three years of my life went by so fast. I just want to thank my friends for all the great memories that will last.

ZWIERS, Kerry

"Life is like a picture: with each passing day we paint a new picture. Yesterday may have added feeling and today might add character but tomorrow will always be a new experience."
